

Sewing is like the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We begin with a beautiful piece of fabric. We are given a pattern to live by, scissors to cut away the world, pins to hold us together as we create our own stitches, daily. And a seam ripper, like the atonement, to help us fix our mistakes.

Each pattern piece a different part of our Divine selves.

Each one of us is Unique and "sew" perfect in the eyes of our Savior.

Sewing is like the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We begin with a beautiful piece of fabric. We are given a pattern to live by, scissors to cut away the world, pins to hold us together as we create our own stitches, daily. And a seam ripper, like the atonement, to help us fix our mistakes.

Each pattern piece a different part of our Divine selves.

Each one of us is Unique and "sew" perfect in the eyes of our Savior.

Sewing is like the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We begin with a beautiful piece of fabric. We are given a pattern to live by, scissors to cut away the world, pins to hold us together as we create our own stitches, daily. And a seam ripper, like the atonement, to help us fix our mistakes.

Each pattern piece a different part of our Divine selves.

Each one of us is Unique and "sew" perfect in the eyes of our Savior.

Sewing is like the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We begin with a beautiful piece of fabric. We are given a pattern to live by, scissors to cut away the world, pins to hold us together as we create our own stitches, daily. And a seam ripper, like the atonement, to help us fix our mistakes.

Each pattern piece a different part of our Divine selves.

Each one of us is Unique and "sew" perfect in the eyes of our Savior.

